Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, déc. 2016) : 91/100. From a much cooler vintage, the 2014 Condrieu Vertige is another seriously good effort that sports terrific notes of flower oil, citrus and hints of apricot jam in a fresh, lively and juicy style. The nose is richer than the palate, and the wine finishes with bright acidity. Drink it over the coming couple of years. Drink 2016-2019.
