Comments about

Jean-Claude Lapalu Beaujolais Tentation 2016

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neil Martin, août 2017) : The 2016 Beaujolais Villages Tentation, aged for five or six months in tonneau, has a rip-roaring bouquet with superb delineation: fresh and vibrant with cranberry leaf, raspberry and just a touch of rose petal. This conveys great energy and zeal. The palate is well balanced with a touch of sour cherry on the entry. There is great depth here, a slight meatiness toward the finish, retaining balance from start to finish. Very fine. Drink date 2017-2024.
