Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neal Martin - déc. 2015) : 90/100. "The 2014 Bourgogne Aligoté Auvonne (which means "oat" in French and is actually the name of the lieu-dit) comes from vines planted in 1962. It has a complex bouquet with yellow flowers and light honeyed fruit. The palate is fresh and quite spicy in the mouth, smoked walnut and nutmeg here with a crisp, citrus, rosewater-tinged finish. Lovely."

Drink Date: 2016-2021.
