Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neil Martin - déc. 2015) : 94-96/100. The 2014 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru les Suchots has a fragrant nose of blackberry and boysenberry fruit with a potent cold stone scent flowing underneath. I like the reserve here. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly chewy tannin on the entry, but harmonious and cohesive with a linear, delineated finish that should gain more flesh by the time it is bottle. At the moment, there is plenty of freshness and tension, if not the weight that I am sure the 2015 will eventually bestow. Drink date 2018-2035.
