Comments about

Jean Foillard Morgon Côte du Py 2016 :

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Neil Martin, août 2017) : 91-93/100. The 2016 Morgon Côte du Py is more convincing on the nose than the Morgon Corcelette at the moment, with vivacious dark cherry, raspberry and orange blossom aromas soaring from the glass. The palate is fresh on the entry with crisp acidity, quite linear and very focused with a saline touch on the finish. There is great potential here, and it constitutes one of Jean Foillard's most promising offerings in 2016. Drink 2020-2032.
