Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (William Kelley, aôut 2018) : 87-89/100. The 2017 Chablis Villages, a cuvée assembled from fully 40 parcels, reveals aromas of green apple, lemon and oystershell. On the palate, it's medium-bodied and elegantly textural—not a world away from the domaine's Petit Chablis in style, but with more tension and concentration. It had just been filtered when I tasted it, so I may not have caught the wine at the best moment.
