Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Joe Czerwinski, juin 2020) : 92/100. Proprietor Hervé Bizeul has outdone himself with the 2018 IGP Côtes Catalanes Grenache Blanc Vieilles Vignes (which actually includes a bit of Grenache Gris as well). Scents of crushed stone, melon and tangerine emerge on the nose, while the full-bodied palate is broad and mouth coating yet finishes long, with mouthwatering salinity and terrific freshness. I'm not sure how long-lived this will be, so try to catch it in the next year or so. With 1,000 cases produced, it shouldn't be that difficult to track down.
