Product description:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Joe Czerwinski, mai 2021) : 99/100. *Stéphane Ogier's 2017 Cote Rotie La Cote Blonde takes the quality at this estate to exquisite heights. As I previously projected from barrel and tank, it's a tremendous effort from vines planted in 2010 and adjacent to Guigal's La Mouline parcel. Soaring aromas of peppery florals, licorice and purple raspberries make a huge impression on the nose, while the medium to full-bodied palate is dense and ripe without being heavy. It is layered with velvety tannins and glycerol richness. The long, long finish adds hints of grilled beef, brown sugar and dried spices and brings a second wave of fruit and refreshing star anise notes alongside a coating of dusty tannins. Drink 2020-2040.
