Description du produit :

Sur ce vin en particulier:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (Jeb Dunnuck, oct. 2013): While this estate is known mostly for their Chateauneuf du Papes, they release a bevy of high quality Cotes du Rhones that almost always represent terrific values. A light, earthy effort that offers up nice black cherry, olive and peppery aromas and flavors, the 2011 Cotes du Rhone Font de Blanche is medium to light-bodied, balanced and decidedly fresh and lively on the palate. An easygoing, quaffable effort that has plenty of character, it should be consumed over the coming year or three. Drink now-2016.
